A History of

Learning By Making

The Makers’ Space, University of Tasmania, Cradle Coast Campus is proud to present a retrospective of Learning by Making spanning 25 years, from the School of Architecture and Design, as part of the Future/Maker Design event.

Please join staff, students, friends and supporters to celebrate the opening of this special exhibition Thursday 20th August at 5pm

Opening address by Professor Stephen Loo
Professor of Architecture and Director, Creative Exchange Institute

RSVP: Tina.Walker@utas.edu.au or Phone: 6430 4957

Exhibition curated by Joanna Gair
Exhibition continues until Thursday 10th September 2015

Makers Space - Gallery
Open: 9-5pm 7 Days
UTAS Cradle Coast Campus,
West Park Precinct, 2 Bass Highway, Burnie
WWW.CRADLE-COAST.UTAS.EDU.AU
Ph: 03) 6430 5831

Image: Green House, 1994 built by second and third year student from UTAS School of Architecture and Design, lead by Jack Birrell