Faraday’s Candle

An entertaining and illuminating theatre performance. Shed a little light on the humble candle.

More than 150 years ago Michael Faraday saw beauty and wonder in the chemistry of a candle.

His observations remain true today, and the lessons are both simple and profound.

Thursday 12th June
7pm

All Saint’s Church,
339 Macquarie Street,
South Hobart

Tickets $10