Changing the Way We Think about Change

Shifting Boundaries, Changing Lives

The Australian and New Zealand Critical Criminology Conference 2012

Thursday 12th – Friday 13th July 2012

University of Tasmania, Hobart, Australia

Programme Highlights

Workshop sessions, to date, include discussion topics such as:
- Victim Support and Protection
- Prisons and Parenting
- Specialist Diversion Programmes
- Recidivism and Ex-Offenders
- Sex Offences
- Vulnerability and Risk
- Sexting and Offensive Language
- Inequality and Visibility
- Social Work and Criminology
- Alcohol and Other Drugs
- Research Methods & Critical Criminology
- Police Accountability and Legitimacy
- Due Process and the Conduct of Justice
- LGBTIQ Issues

The Conference will feature four plenary sessions:
- Border Crossing Horizons: Researching Migration and Security Globally
- Reinventing Gender, Imprisonment and Critical Criminology
- Indigenous Legal Needs and Justice Reinvestment
- The Pursuit of Truth and Justice: Knowledge, Denial and Ambiguity

A conference for academics, practitioners, activists and students. The 2012 theme focuses on changing contexts, dynamic relations, innovative approaches and emerging challenges in criminology and beyond.

Participants include a range of established and early career academics, students and practitioners. Among those presenting are: Chris Cunneen, Barry Goldson, Kelly Hannah-Moffat, Eileen Baldry, Julie Stubbs, Bree Carlton, Adam Graycar, Nancy Wonders, Leanne Weber, Darren Palmer, Barbara Etter, Michael Hill, Jude McCulloch, Sharon Pickering, Greg Barns, Nicole Asquith, and many more.

Conference registration forms are available via email or on the UTAS website under the ‘event list’ page.

Conference Convenor:
For more information, contact Professor Rob White
School of Sociology & Social Work, UTAS
R.D.White@utas.edu.au
+ 61 3 6226 2877
www.utas.edu.au