Changing the Way We Think about Change

Shifting Boundaries, Changing Lives

The Australian and New Zealand Critical Criminology Conference 2012

Thursday 12th – Friday 13th July 2012

University of Tasmania, Hobart, Australia

---

Call for Abstracts

Abstracts are invited for papers exploring the following themes:

- Contradictions, paradoxes and controversies
- Global inequalities: people, places, politics
- Green criminology in a climate of change
- Institutions and culture: police, courts, probation, prisons
- Ending offending: desistance and the process of change
- Gaps, silences and forgotten minorities
- What matters? What’s important — and according to whom?
- Advocacy, activism and resisting apathy
- Over the horizon issues and emerging challenges
- Thinking differently, innovation and research frontiers

Abstracts should be submitted as follows:

- Abstracts should be a minimum of 150 and max. of 250 words;
- Include author(s) names, with presenter name(s) in bold, institution and contact details;
- Submit abstract via email, with your name and the conference title in the subject line, to the conference convenor by C.O.B Friday 11 May 2012.

Conference programme and registration details to come

---

Conference convenor:
For more information, contact Professor Rob White
School of Sociology & Social Work, UTAS
R.D.White@utas.edu.au
+ 61 3 6226 2877
www.utas.edu.au