Juhani Pallasmaa - Finland

Public Lecture: 6.00pm Fri 21 March 2014

Juhani Pallasmaa Architect SAFA, Hon. FAIA, Int FRIBA, professor, Helsinki, has practised architecture since the early 60s and established Pallasmaa Architects in 1983. In addition to architectural design, he has been active in urban planning, exhibition, product and graphic design. He has taught and lectured widely in Europe, North and South America, Africa, Australia and Asia, and published over forty books and numerous essays on the philosophies of architecture and art in over thirty languages. He has held positions as e.g. Professor and Dean at the Helsinki University of Technology (1991-1997), Director of the Museum of Finnish Architecture (1978-1983), and Rector of the Institute of Industrial Arts (1970-1971), Helsinki. He has also held visiting professorships in several universities in the USA. Pallasmaa has received four honorary doctorates and numerous awards.

TAS + JURN - Jørn Utzon Research Network